

STERLING
CAPITAL

Fundamental Equity Update

April 2017

Sterling Capital Management is pleased to welcome Douglas M. Grant, CFA[®], to the Fundamental Equity Team as a director and analyst covering the industrial and healthcare sectors. Prior to joining Sterling, Doug covered these same sectors during his time as a senior equity analyst and portfolio manager at Invesco Advisers, where he was employed for over 16 years. Before Invesco, Doug was a financial analyst at RPC, Inc., manager of financial reporting at Cryolife, Inc., and a senior auditor at Ernst & Young, LLP.

Doug received his BBA in Accounting from the University of Georgia and his MBA from the University of Texas at Austin. Additionally, Doug has also served as an executive education and undergraduate lecturer at the University of Houston. He is a CFA[®] charterholder.

“Doug has extensive experience covering the industrial and healthcare sectors. His fundamental, value-driven and long-term approach to investing aligns very well with his new role on the equity team. We are confident that he will be a great addition to Sterling Capital,” said Director of Research, Patrick W. Rau, CFA[®].

Please note: The opinions contained in the preceding commentary reflect those of Sterling Capital Management LLC. The stated opinions are for general information only and not meant to be predictions or an offer of individual or personalized investment advice. They are not intended as an offer or solicitation with respect to the purchase or sale of any security. This information and these opinions are subject to change without notice. Any type of investing involves risk and there are no guarantees. Sterling Capital Management does not assume liability for any loss which may result from the reliance by any person upon such information or opinions.